Information - Hivesville VCCAQ Rally in the Country

5th, 6th and 7th March 2022

A 3-day Hub Rally based in the South Burnett town of Hivesville.

Period Costume is optional through-out the rally

Rally Start Point – Camping/RV area

Rally Routes - Runs of no more than approx. 100 klms on the first 2 days and a shorter run on the 3rd day. (Subject to change) Suitable for all veteran cars. Routes will be emailed to entrants closer to the date.

Briefings – 20 minutes before scheduled start times each day.

Accommodation – Hotel - Limited Hotel (Pub) rooms and Donga's. We have booked all rooms for the rally as Proston show is on same weekend. (Be Quick) Rooms to be booked through Len or Terry.

Camping - Also, there is a large area for camping and RV's etc at the Hivesville Country markets ground for a donation to markets committee. N.B. - This area is a market area and therefore is not set up as a caravan park. It has about 8 power outlets and a 2-toilet block. There are no showers but the hotel owners are happy for showers at the hotel amenities to be available at $2/shower. No bookings required for camping/RV area.

If using this area try to be as self-sufficient as possible. Generators are allowed and encouraged with reasonable consideration to others.

Meals/Food – all food on rally routes will be pay as you go or take your own. Lunch/smoko stops on rally route will be notified when rally routes are emailed. There are meals at the hotel on a limited menu board. The service station has a small grocery store and has some take-aways and hot box, coffee etc.

Fuel – Hivesville Fuel and Food - 350m away from camp grounds. Open 6am to 7pm.

Arrive and Depart – At present it is our intention to start Saturday's run mid-morning so a Friday arrival is recommended. A short run on the Monday should be back to Hivesville before lunchtime. There may be another run for those who wish Monday afternoon.

Enquiries – Len Kelly - 0418734268, email – gairloch@internode.on.net
